DR. REX LIU, DDS

Owner
Family & Cosmetic Dentistry

Dr. Rex F. Liu of Family and Cosmetic Dentistry, Inc. has maintained his private practice for over 25 years in Las Vegas. He graduated from the USC School of Dentistry, where he was Student Body President and a Presidential Scholar. He has launched the careers of over a dozen dentists and is a former CSN Dental Faculty and Clinic Instructor. His practice has received the Business Excellence Award for company culture, Customer Service Excellence Award, Best Business of the Year 2012, Woman or Minority Owned, and People Love Us on Yelp 2017 Award. As a Board Member who grew up in our community, he gives voice to our medical and dental community, our Asian community and our small business owners. He is active in the Clark County Dental Society and an Advisory Board Member for the Roseman School of Medicine. He has been a spokesperson for the Review Journal's Print and Media Show and in 2014 represented the business and medical community in a commercial to "Vote No on Question 3, the Margin Tax," and appeared on Vegas PBS in 2015 to co-host a telethon. His dental practice also participates in local charity work, health fairs, and UNLV's "Give Kids a Smile Program," and has provided free dental care to indigent school children for over a decade.
